

SUGGESTION OF MR. BONAPARTE

Attorney General Comes to the Rescue of a Senate Committee.

SENDS LETTER TO ELKINS

AMENDMENT TO RESOLUTION ON THE RATE LAW.

Washington, April 10.—Chairman Elkins today brought to the attention of the senate committee on interstate commerce a letter from Attorney General Bonaparte submitting an amendment to the resolution to suspend until Jan. 1, 1910, the penalties attached to the commodity clause of the railroad rate law. The amendment is intended to protect the right of railroads and permit the government to test the constitutionality of the clause in advance of its operation. The suggestion of the attorney general follows:

"In view of the fact that some difference of opinion seems to exist as to whether any appropriate civil remedy exists to enforce the provisions of the 'commodity clause' of the Hepburn act as the law now stands, I venture to suggest that the resolution be amended by adding the following words:

Bonaparte's Amendment.

"Provided, That nothing in this resolution shall be construed to prevent the bringing of any civil suit or proceeding for the enforcement of said provision, or prevention of violations thereof; and that the attorney general is hereby authorized to institute, or cause to be instituted, in the name of the United States, and against any persons or corporations failing to comply with said provision, such civil suit, whether by application for mandamus, bill in equity for injunction, or other effective remedy in the premises, in any circuit court of the United States, or having jurisdiction in the premises to secure the enforcement and observance of said provision; and the respective parties to any suit herein authorized to be commenced shall enjoy the right of appeal, as in suits of like character, which shall be by the request of the interstate commerce commission to compel the observance of the interstate commerce law."

Mr. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where others are total failures. F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutes."

WIFE BEATERS RELEASED

Pardon of Royden Causes Wife to Appeal to Court for Protection.

Mrs. H. C. Tremayne, who caused her husband's arrest a few days ago, alleging that he had beaten her, withdrew her charge in the police court yesterday afternoon and the case was dismissed.

Mrs. Victor Royden, whose husband was recently pardoned from the chain gang by Mayor Bransford, has appealed to District Judge Armstrong for protection from Royden, claiming that he has been no longer because she caused his arrest and arrest.

Royden lived with his wife in South State street near Third South. About three weeks ago Policeman D. E. Joyce summoned to the house. He found Mrs. Royden unconscious upon the floor, bleeding from a number of wounds upon the head and face. Royden was sitting upon a bed, gazing at his unconscious wife.

Police Judge Diehl sentenced the husband to 10 days with the chain gang. The man was soon afterwards pardoned by Mayor Bransford.

PEACE MEETING IS CALLED

Those Interested in Cause Gather in Governor's Office and Issue
Call for May 17.

Another meeting in the interests of universal peace will be held in the First Congregational church May 17.

This was decided upon yesterday at a meeting of those interested in the movement at the governor's office. The first peace meeting in the state was held a year ago at the Algonquin hall.

Those present at yesterday's meeting were Governor Cutler, Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. Cosgriff, Rabbi Freund, John Henry Smith, J. M. Sjodahl, vice president of the Greek colony, and Rev. P. A. Simpson, M. E. Johnson, president of the Greek colony, and Rev. P. A. Simpson, M. E. Johnson, president of the Greek colony, and Rev. P. A. Simpson, M. E. Johnson, president of the Greek colony.

LOST $300
Buying Medicine When Right Food
Was Needed.

Money spent for "tonics" and "bracers" to relieve indigestion, while the poor old stomach is loaded with pastry and pork, is worse than losing a pocketbook containing the money.

If the money only is lost it's bad enough, but with lost health from wrong eating, it is hard to make the money back.

A Michigan young lady lost money on drugs, but is thankful she found a way to get back her health by proper food. She writes:

"I had been a victim of nervous dyspepsia for six years and spent three hundred dollars for treatment in the attempt to get well. None of it did me any good."

"Finally I tried Grape-Nuts food, and the results were such that, if it cost a dollar a package, I would not be without it. My trouble had been caused by eating rich food such as pastry and pork."

"The most wonderful thing that ever happened to me, I am sure, was the change in my condition after I began to eat Grape-Nuts. I began to improve at once and the first week gained four pounds."

"I feel that I cannot express myself in terms that are worthy of the benefit Grape-Nuts has brought to me, and you are perfectly free to publish this letter if it will send some poor sufferer relief, such as has come to me."

START VIADUCT ON MONDAY

Actual Work on Long Desired Improvement to Be Begun
Next Week.

After many years of talk, actual work on the building of the Twenty-fourth street viaduct will be commenced on Monday morning. The first work will be the putting in of a sewer and getting the roadway to one side. As soon as this has been done the work of excavating for the foundation will be in order and by gradual steps the structure will rise. The estimated cost of the viaduct is unknown at present. It is expected to be completed in about eight months. Assistant Engineer Campbell will have charge of the construction work.

CHILD BITTEN BY DOG.

Three-Year-Old Daughter of Henry Hess May Die.

The 3-year-old daughter of Henry Hess was attacked by a vicious dog in an alley running to the residence of John Smith on Grant avenue, yesterday afternoon, and so severely mangled that the child's life is despaired of.

The child was in the alley in the sight of several women when a large black dog came along muzzling when he saw the girl stopped. Childlike, the babe held out her hand to pet the animal, but instead of responding to the friendly pat the dog sprang upon the child with a savage growl and sank its teeth into her face.

The cries of the infant attracted the attention of the women, who rushed to its aid and beat off the dog. The child was carried to its home, where medical aid was promptly rendered. In the excitement the dog escaped and has not been seen since, despite the search instituted by the police.

DEATH OF DAVID L. LEE.

David L. Lee, better known as "Dad," assistant chief of the local fire department, answered his last call at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he succumbed to an attack of cancer of the liver at his apartments at the Annex rooming house.

For seventeen years he had been connected with the Ogden fire department, during which time he served in various positions, being appointed assistant chief the first of the present year.

Mr. Lee was born at Annapolis, Md., March 22, 1851, and in 1883 came to Utah, entering the employ of William Garland, who built the Bear River canal. At the completion of that undertaking Lee joined the fire department, with which he has been connected since. He was made captain in 1902. In 1905 he married Mrs. Bessie Hill, who survives him. He also leaves a daughter, Mrs. G. W. Shively, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. J. L. Blosser.

Bond Question a Dead Issue.

A committee from the Ogden City Improvement league conferred with the board of education last evening as to the advisability of resubmitting the question of bonding the city for funds to build a new high school. The committee promised the support of the league should the matter be favorably considered, but the board inclined to the belief that the matter is a dead issue unless it could be shown that such an election would meet with favor. Professor D. E. Joyce, principal of the Ogden high school, appeared before the meeting and explained the necessity of the new building. Improvements were made by all of those present, but no definite conclusion was reached.

AMUSEMENTS.

It certainly is true that "You Never Can Tell." People who went to the Salt Lake theatre last night expecting to sit through four acts of raw amateurism, interspersed with stage waits, forgotten lines, misplaced cues and the other accessories of the average amateur performance were most agreeably disappointed. "You Never Can Tell," one of Bernard Shaw's brightest comedies, was the bill. The players were members of the University Dramatic club.

It is not regarded as chubbly to criticize amateur productions from a professional standpoint, but so many members of the company last night were good that there is a temptation to place them in the professional plane. Richard W. Young, Jr., and Miss Lea Roberts divided the honors. Mr. Young as Mr. Valentine, a dentist, and Miss Roberts as Gloria Clandon gave characterizations that were more than meritorious. Their ease of manner, their perfection in their lines and their entire lack of self-consciousness indicated both hard work and exceptional dramatic ability. Both Miss Roberts and Mr. Young are decided acquisitions to the ranks of the local amateurs.

It should not by any means be understood that these two performers are en-

HALL IS ROUNDED UP.
Police Capture Somewhat Noted Character After Chase.

Charles F. Hall, who disappeared two days ago in an effort to avoid trial on the charge of petit larceny, was found in hiding in the house at 103 West First South street yesterday afternoon by Detectives Chase and Burt. As they entered the house to arrest him, Hall ran from a rear door. The detectives followed in pursuit. The fugitive leaped over four or five fences and reached Third South street before he was overtaken. Just as he crept into a coal shed in an effort to find a hiding place.

Hall is the man who cut his throat after he had failed in an effort to escape Detectives Wheeling and Janney, who went to the house of Mrs. Mary LeProhon at 22 East Fourth South street, to arrest him. Mrs. LeProhon charged Hall with stealing a number of articles from her home. He had promised to marry the woman.

When Hall was discharged from the hospital, Mrs. LeProhon agreed to drop the case against him if he would return the things that he had stolen. He was released so that he could gather together the missing articles. After that Hall disappeared.

COMMEND Y. W. C. A. WORK.
Mrs. Musser of Chicago and Miss Dowe of New York, two of the national board of the Young Woman's Christian association spent a short time in the city yesterday on their way home from the general Y. W. C. A. conference held in Capitol City.

The two ladies were guests of the local association and visited both the association rooms in the Brooks arcade and the boarding home on Second East street.

Mrs. E. B. Critchlow, president of the local board, Miss Sara Johnston, the secretary, and Miss Mary LeSourd took them around and made them acquainted with the work being done and they expressed themselves as surprised at the excellent condition in which they found the local association after such a short period of existence.
